The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thurſday July 12, to Saturday July 14. 1792.

Whitehall, July 14.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Glouceſter, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon aud Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter, actuated by a ſincere Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and a zealous Attachment to our excellent Conſtitution, both Civil and Religious, acknowledge, with the warmeſt Gratitude, your Majeſty's conſtant Attention to the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, and particularly the recent and ſignal Proof thereof, which your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to give them in your late Royal Proclamation.

We have not only ſeen aud lamented the various Attempts which have been made to excite Tumults and Diſorders, by endeavouring to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects; but we have obſerved, with peculiar Concern, the perſevering Induſtry, with which wicked and ſeditious Writings, publiſhed with that View, have been diſperſed amongſt all Orders and Ranks of Men throughout your Majeſty's Dominions.

We are duly impreſſed with a Senſe of that Duty which requires us, as Miniſters of the Goſpel of Jeſus Chriſt, to co-operate with your Majeſty's paternal Anxiety for the Preſervation of the Public Peace and Proſperity, by exerting our beſt and conſtant Endeavours to guard the People committed to our Care, againſt the Deluſions of all ſuch as would alienate their Minds from the Love of that pure Religion which they profeſs, and that happy Conſtitution of Government under which they live: And we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall not ceaſe to exhort them to unite with us in praying for a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign, and an uninterrupted Succeſſion of Princes of your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, as our beſt Security, under Divine Providence, for the permanent Poſſeſſion of thoſe invaluable Bleſſings which all your faithful Subjects now enjoy under the Protection of your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bangor, has been preſented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Bangor, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bangor.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO accept the humble and hearty Thanks of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bangor, for your watchful Care and Attention, in iſſuing your moſt gracious Proclamation at this critical Juncture.

We are moſt truly ſenſible of the Excellence of our Conſtitution both in Church and State, and acknowledge ledge, with the ſincereſt Gratitude, the manifold Bleſſings we enjoy under it, by Means of the mild and equal Manner with which the Royal Authority is exerciſed.

The unexampled Succeſs which attends your Majeſty's Endeavours for the Public Good, gives us the higheſt Satisfaction, and diſpoſes us to rely, with implicit Confidence, on the Wiſdom and Prudence of your Majeſty's Counſels.

We cannot, on this Occaſion, forbear to expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, our Abhorrence of thoſe wicked Deſigns, which have been ſet on Foot of late, to diſturb the Public Tranquillity, under the ſpecious Name of Reformation; but we are extremely happy to obſerve that no Attempt of this Kind hath been yet openly made in theſe remote Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions to which we belong: And we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to prevent ſuch miſchievous Practices, by promoting, as far as we can, Peace and good Order, and by inſtructing all, under our Care, to reverence Authority, and pay due Obedience to the Laws of their Country, from a Senſe of Duty and Conſcience.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, has been preſented to the King by William Aſheton, Eſq; High Sheriff of that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Period when all good Citizens ſhould unite their Endeavours with thoſe of the Parent of the State to repreſs that ſeditious Spirit which has lately ſo much prevailed, we, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, conſider ourſelves called upon, in an eſpecial Manner, to offer to your Majeſty every Tribute of Gratitude for your late gracious Proclamation for effecting that ſalutary End.

We poſſeſs, under your Majeſty's wiſe and beneficent Government, an extenſive Commerce hitherto unexampled in your Realms; we ſee the Exertions of Induſtry encouraged and rewarded; and we enjoy, from an upright Adminiſtration of juſt and equal Laws, every Degree of Security and Freedom conſiſtent with Civil Society.

Experiencing theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings in a Conſtitution, which all ſurrounding Nations look up to with Envy, and which it has ever been the Pride of Engliſhmen to revere, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we will chearfully uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to diſcourage whatever may have a Tendency to diſturb the Order of Society and the Peace of the Realm.

Senſible of the good Effects already reſulting from the mild Interpoſition of your Majeſty's Royal Authority, we entertain a well-grounded Hope that the Whole of our Fellow Subjects will with us unite their Endeavours for the Support of thoſe Meaſures which may moſt effectually tend to tranſmit our glorious Conſtitution, inviolate and unimpaired, to the lateſt Poſterity.

We beg Leave alſo to expreſs our earneſt Wiſhes for a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign over a loyal, a free, and a happy People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleſton, has been preſented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Leeds: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleſton, in Cornwall.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleſton, ever ready to ſhew our Duty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, moſt humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt grateful Acknowledgements for having iſſued your Royal Proclamation, to check and ſuppreſs thoſe daring and ſeditious Publications, which have been publiſhed in this Kingdom, tending to diſturb the great Happineſs, Proſperity and Tranquillity at preſent exiſting therein.

Truly impreſſed with the Advantages we enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Government, and firmly attached to the Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed at the Revolution, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, in every Capacity, public or private, exert our utmoſt Endeavours for furthering your Majeſty's Intentions, as ſignified in your Royal Proclamation.

That your Majeſty may, by the Bleſſing of God, long reign over this favored Nation (free and happy as we now are) in full Enjoyment of the Love and Confidence of your People, is the moſt hearty Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Iſle of Wight, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honorable Thomas Orde, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Iſle of Wight.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the ſincereſt Teſtimony of grateful Acknowledgment for the freſh Inſtance of paternal Solicitude which your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to manifeſt for the eſſential Intereſts of the People committed to your Charge. Our Gratitude to your Majeſty does not, however, exceed our Indignation at the Neceſſity which has called for the provident Warning contained in your Royal Proclamation againſt the Authors and the Influence of ſeditious Writings and deluſive Theories, wickedly deviſed and induſtriouſly diſperſed with the moſt miſchievous Deſign upon the Loyalty of the Subject, and the Conſtitution of the Country.

We have, indeed, no Reaſon to apprehend that ſuch pernicious Doctrines, Projects or Practices will have any ſucceſsful Power to warp the Diſpoſitions and Attachments of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects in this Iſland. We cheriſh no Sentiments with more genuine Warmth than thoſe of Love for our Sovereign, and of Reverence for the Conſtitution of Government ſo happily eſtabliſhed within this Realm; but we humbly beg Permiſſion to aſſure your Majeſty, that Confidence in our own Strength ſhall not betray us into Neglect of the moſt active Efforts in our ſeveral Stations, by Example and Exhortation, and at every Hazard to co-operate with your Majeſty and your Parliament in the Reſolutions adopted to diſcourage and repreſs every Attempt to corrupt our Principles, or diſturb the Public Tranquillity.

Contemplating the Nature and Compoſition of our Legiſlature, in Compariſon with thoſe of other Countries, and the happy Order and Proportion of the ſeveral Parts of our preſent Form of Government, Civil and Religious, we readily diſcern in them the beſt and moſt certain Foundations of the National Welfare, and of the preſent fortunate Situation of this Realm; and we cannot but conceive and declare the moſt decided Averſion and Reſentment againſt thoſe who would injure your Majeſty's People in their deareſt Concerns, by Endeavours to derange and confound a Syſtem and Circumſtances of unexampled Excellence and Proſperity. We are ſenſible that we cannot too ſtrongly inculcate in others the Conviction with which our own Minds are impreſſed, that on the Preſervation of the Peace and Order of Society, on the Efficacy of the Laws, and on the Permanency of the Conſtitution, eſſentially depend not only the juſt Authority and Dignity of the Crown, but the real Welfare and Happineſs of all and each individual Citizen of your Majeſty's Kingdom; the full Enjoyment of the Fruits of their Induſtry, and the invariable Security of their Privileges and Liberties.

The good Senſe, as well as the Attachment of the People, will always make them ſee and be anxious to maintain the neceſſary and harmonious Connection between all Orders of the Community, between their Intereſts and thoſe of the Crown; and may the Bleſſing of God upon our Duties, our Affections and our Prayers, keep it long in full Luſtre upon the ſacred Head which has hitherto ſo exemplarily worn it.

The following Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity-Houſe of Deptford Strond, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honorable William Pitt: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity-Houſe of Deptford Strond.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the ancient Body Corporate of the Seamen of England, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of unfeigned Gratitude for your Majeſty's paternal Care and Attention towards the Safety of all your Subjects, manifeſted by your late Royal Proclamation.

Truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy by our moſt excellent Conſtitution, under the Protection of your Majeſty's Government, we moſt ardently join in applauding the Meaſures taken by your Majeſty's Miniſters for preſerving the Peace of this Country, and for defeating all dangerous and ſeditious Attempts to diſturb it; and we moſt fervently unite in earneſt Prayers to Almighty God, that your Majeſty may continue, to the fulleſt Extent of Time, to reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal this 7th Day of July, 1792.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks, has been preſented to the King by Sir John Jervis, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of your antient Corporation of Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks, humbly thank your Majeſty for your kind and paternal Care and Interference at this Juncture for your late gracious Proclamation againſt factious and ſeditious Writers, or whoever elſe may dare to make an Attempt to undermine our moſt invaluable Conſtitution; and we are fully determined we will exert our utmoſt Endeavours to reſiſt any Attempt that may be made to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Government.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free, happy and united People, is the moſt ardent Wiſh and Deſire of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects of this Corporation.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Sudbury has been preſented to the King by J. Cox Hippiſley and J. Creſpigny, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of your antient Borough of Sudbury, in your County of Suffolk, in Common Hall aſſembled, animated with the pureſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Acknowledgements

to

to your Majeſty for the Exerciſe of the juſt Prerogative of the Crown, manifeſted in your late gracious Proclamation for the Preſervation of Public Order and Tranquillity.

Deeply impreſſed with the Conviction of the ſolid Bleſſings aſſured to us by our excellent Conſtitution, matured by the Wiſdom and Experience of Ages, we look with Abhorrence to every ſeditious Attempt to influence the Minds of the People with Opinions and Writings ſubverſive of that Conſtitution, as by Law eſtabliſhed; and we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that no Exertions on our Part ſhall be wanting to give every Aid and Effect to the Executive Power in defeating the wicked Deſigns of the Enemies of your Majeſty's Government and the domeſtic Tranquillity of theſe Realms.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, this 26th Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Stephen Oliver, Mayor.

J. Cox Hippiſley, Recorder.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Freemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Camelford has been preſented to the King by James Macpherſon, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Freemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Camelford, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Freemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Camelford, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach the Throne with all Humility, Loyalty, Attachment, and Affection, to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Thanks for the Bleſſings which we enjoy, in common with our Fellow Subjects, under your Majeſty's auſpicious and paternal Government.

Moſt zealouſly attached as we are to the Glorious Revolution, which called the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover to the Throne, we look with Indignation and Horror upon the Attempts that have been lately made to inflame the Minds of the People, by dangerous and ſeditious Publications againſt a Conſtitution of Government, whoſe Excellence is unequalled in the Annals of Mankind.

We, therefore, moſt humbly thank your Majeſty for your late Royal Proclamation, and for the Meaſures which your Majeſty has been moſt graciouſly pleaſed to adopt, for preſerving entire to your loyal and happy Subjects the Conſtitution confirmed and eſtabliſhed by the Revolution; which, by giving a proper and juſt Weight to the Crown, ſupports the Liberties of the Subject.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a great People, made happy by your many Royal Virtues, is the moſt earneſt and ſincere Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, has been preſented to the King by the Hon. H. Walpole and Sir M. B. Folkes, Bart, the Repreſentativess in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council aſſembled, intreat your Majeſty to accept our ſincere Thanks for your late Royal Peoclamation againſt ſeditious and inflammatory Publications.

We humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Attachment to the Conſtitution, as eſtabliſhed at the Glorious Revolution, and of our unſhaken Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon, and that we will, on all Occaſions, uſe our beſt Endeavours to prevent and ſuppreſs all Attempts to interrupt the Public Tranquillity.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in King's Lynn, the 4th Day of July, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chriſtchurch has been preſented to the King by George Roſe, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chriſtchurch.

WE, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chriſtchurch, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with ſincere and grateful Thanks for the unremitted Attention your Majeſty has, on every Occaſion, ſhewn to the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People, and to acknowledge, in a particular Manner, the late judicious and beneficent Inſtance of it, in iſſuing your Royal Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of wicked and ſeditious Publications, and for the Prevention of Tumults, at a Time when Principles of the moſt dangerous Tendency were diſſeminated with great Induſtry.

We are deeply ſenſible of the Advantages we enjoy in common with the Reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects under the Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed by our Anceſtors at the Revolution; and we are perſuaded that the wild and extravagant Theories, oppoſed to it by miſchievous or ſpeculative Perſons, will produce no other Effect, than to lead to a ſtronger Demonſtration than ever of the Wiſdom, the Prudence, and the true Patriotiſm of thoſe who framed and eſtabliſhed the glorious Syſtem.

Under this Impreſſion, and feeling very forcibly the ineſtimable Bleſſings and Advantages your People derive rive from your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government, we ſhall not fail to reſiſt, as far as can depend upon us, all Attempts at Innovation; and your Majeſty may be aſſured of our utmoſt Exertions to repreſs all Proceedings, of whatever Kind, tending to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Subjects.

Given, on the Part of the Mayor and Burgeſſes, under their Common Seal, this 9th Day of July, 1792.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland, has been preſented to the King by John Heathcote and G. N. Edwards, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland, beg Leave to expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, our grateful Thanks for the Attention ſhewn by your Majeſty in the late Proclamation to maintain good Order, and for the Suppreſſion of the ſeditious and wicked Publications, circulated by Perſons inimical both to the Peace and Welfare of theſe Kingdoms.

Your Royal and paternal Care is manifeſted by the reminding your Subjects of the excellent Principles of our Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed at the Revolution, and of your Deſire that Obedience to the Laws may be enforced.

We moſt ſincerely wiſh your Majeſty may long reign over a happy People, and have every poſſible Enjoyment of Health and Proſperity.

James Tiptaft, Sheriff,
For and on Behalf of the County of Rutland.

Tde following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Hartford, has been preſented to the King by James Bourchier, Eſq; High Sheriff of that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Hartford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Hartford, fully ſenſible of the many Bleſſings which the well-regulated Conſtitution of this Country has ſo firmly ſecured to us, beg Leave, with the higheſt Senſe of Gratitude, to make our moſt unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty for your Majeſty's paternal Care of your Subjects, recently exemplified in your late Royal Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of all ſeditious Publications, which have been induſtriouſly diſperſed, and might eventually prove highly dangerous to the Public Peace and Welfare of this Kingdom,

Strongly impreſſed with theſe Feelings, ſuffer us to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall be ready, in every Emergency, to ſupport and aid your Endeavors to withſtand all Attempts that may be made to endanger that Conſtitution, which we hold ſo dear, and under which this Country continues to flouriſh in ſo unexampled a Manner, even at a Time when ſorrounding Nations are harraſſed by Anarchy and Confuſion.

Long may your Majeſty reign over a loyal, free, and happy People, and may they be ſufficiently ſenſible of their Felicity to be induced to cheriſh and protect the Source from which it principally ſprings, that it may thus deſcend pure and unpolluted to future Ages.

Signed at the Requeſt of a numerous Meeting, at the Shire Houſe at Hartford, this 10th Day of July, 1792, James Bourchier, Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Magiſtrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Flint, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honorable Lord Kenyon, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Nobility, Magiſtrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Flint, fully ſenſible, at all Times, of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Regard for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, beg Leave to offer our dutiful and unfeigned Thanks for your gracious Attention to theſe Objects by your late Royal Proclamation, warning your faithful Subjects againſt the pernicious Effects of divers ſeditious Writings and Publications, tending to excite the moſt groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents, and to ſubvert the Peace and good Order of Society, and which, from the uncommon Zeal and Induſtry uſed in diſperſing them through all Parts of the Kingdom (more perhaps than from any Weight in themſelves) juſtly called from your Majeſty Notice and Cenſure.

We cannot but think all Correſpondences with Perſons in Foreign Parts, whoſe avowed Principles are adverſe to the Eſtabliſhments, Civil and Religious, of this Country, and with a View to forward the evil Deſigns of ſuch Writings, as highly criminal; and we conceive that the Example of arbitrary Rule and Public Violence ſhould more and more endear to us that Security and thoſe Bleſſings, which we derive from a free and well-regulated Government, and which, under your Majeſty's Protection, we ſo eminently enjoy.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, and having the ſureſt Confidence in your Majeſty's ſincere Attachment, and that of the Heir of this Crown, to the true and genuine Principles of the Conſtitution, recognized and confirmed at the Glorious Revolution;

We will not fail in our earneſt Endeavours to ſuppreſs and oppoſe all ſeditious and illegal Practices, and to give every Teſtimony of our Warmth and Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon and the Rights of the Crown.

Whitehall, July 14.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Hereford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Hereford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmeſt Thanks for the paternal Regard, manifeſted to us and all our Fellow Subjects, in your Majeſty's late Royal Proclamation, which we truſt will be the Means of preſerving the Peace of our Country, and the Permanency of our happy Conſtitution, under which we enjoy a Degree of Liberty and Proſperity unprecedented in the Annals of Great Britain.

We adore the Goodneſs of Almighty God in having protected your Majeſty's Life, which we devoutly wiſh and pray to be continued for many Years, as an ineſtimable Bleſſing to your Royal Conſort and illuſtrious Progeny, and an Example to all Europe of a mild and beneficent Reign, as well as of every Virtur, private and public.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Mayor, Bailiffs and Aldermen of the Borough, and the Inhabitants of the Town of Dorcheſter, grateful for the Bleſſings which they enjoy, under a Form of Government more perfect than any which Wiſdom hath hitherto deviſed, or Public Spirit carried into Execution, think it their Duty to offer to your Majeſty their unfeigned Thanks for your parental Vigilance, which has been ſo lately exerciſed in endeavouring to preſerve thoſe Bleſſings.

They rejoice in an Opportunity of declaring, that whatever may be attempted by ſeditious Men, regardleſs of the Peace and Happineſs of Society, no Attempt whatever can leſſen their Reverence and Love for the Conſtitution of this Country, or their affectionate Loyalty to your Royal Perſon: And they aſſure your Majeſty, that it ſhall be their earneſt Endeavour to purſue the Dictates of your Proclamation.

[Tranſmitted by the Hon. Cropley Aſhley. and Francis Fane, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Preſbytery of Dundee, impreſſed with a juſt Senſe of the valuable Privileges and Advantages which, by the Providence of God, we enjoy under our free and happy Conſtitution of Government, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our humble Tribute of Gratitude for your paternal Regard, expreſſed in your late Proclamation, for the Intereſts and Happineſs of your People, and for your uniform and unremitted Exertions, in maintaining the Security and Safety of the State.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſincerely diſapprove of all Publications that may have any Tendency to introduce Licentiouſneſs and Diſorder into the Community, to withdraw the Confidence of the People from Parliament, and to ſubvert the Principles of the Britiſh Conſtitution; and that we will endeavour, both in public and in private, to maintain, among all the People committed to our Care, Reſpect and Submiſſion to the Laws and the Public Authority of Government, as eſtabliſhed by our Anceſtors in the Year 1688.

As the Proſperity and Improvement of Britain in general, and of Scotland in particular, were never ſo conſpicuous in any Period of our Hiſtory, we fondly hope that no improper Spirit of Innovation will take place, and that our preſent valuable Privileges and Bleſſings will be tranſmitted to our Poſterity.

That your Majeſty may long continue to ſupport, by your Influence and Example, the true Intereſts of Religion and the State, and, when you have finiſhed your Courſe on Earth, receive a Crown without Cares, and a Kingdom which cannot be moved, is the ſincere and ardent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and moſt affectionate Subjects,
The Preſbytery of Dundee.

Signed in our Name and Preſence, and at our Appointment.

James Blinſhall, Moderator.

[Tranſmitted by D. Scot, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our unfeigned Thanks for your paternal Care of the Peace and Happineſs of all your loving Subjects, and eſpecially for your late moſt gracious Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of all wicked and ſeditious Writings, which are intended to diſturb our Civil and Religious Liberties, and our moſt excellent Conſtitution, in Church and State.

Convinced that the Wealth, Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom depend upon a due Submiſſion to the Laws, a juſt Confidence in the Integrity and Wiſdom of Parliament, and a zealous Attachment to the Government and Conſtitution, we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to prevent the Diſperſion of any ſeditious and wicked Writings, which can tend only to the Encouragement of Riots, Tumults and Diſorders, and muſt inevitably diſturb the Peace of this happy Kingdom, the Envy and Admiration of the World.

That Divine Providence, which has been pleaſed to permit your Majeſty to reign over a grateful and loyal People for many Years paſt, may continue to preſerve your Majeſty in Health, Peace and Happineſs

Happineſs, to reign over them for many Years to come, is, and ſhall be the ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

William White,
William Murrell, } Bailiffs.

St. James's, July 11.

This Day M. le Baron de Nolcken, Envoy Extraordinary and Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Sweden, had a Private Audience of His Majeſty, to deliver his new Letters of Credence:

To which he was introduced by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Eſq; Aſſiſtant Maſter of the Ceremonies.
